The hickory nut crop in Indiana is a failure. Ain't that awful, Miss MABEL?

ONE GROVER CLEVELAND looms up bigger and greater than ever as leading Democrat.

MAYBE CARRIE NATION is responsible for the holding up of HARRIS.—Youngstown Vindicator.

The election of a Republican President is always the signal for Coxe army forces to disband and go to work.

"The Governors are called to meet at Washington on December 2d." What for? Next thing to a Convention of Suffragettes is a meeting of Governors.

We wish Governor WILLSON would give his nerve a hyperdermic and pardon Governor TAYLOR and FINLEY and POWERS and have done with the whole business.

ONE of the sure things in store for Maysvillians when the auditorium of the new High School Building is finished is a series of lectures, musicales, monologues, etc., under Lyceum auspices. Why Maysville has not heretofore had this feature of intellectual pabulum is rather strange, when one stops to think how common they are in other places one-tenth the size of our city; but now we're going after what's coming to us, and the above class of entertainment will appeal to all, especially the teachers and pupils.

We double-dare Prosperity to come on now and do its worst to us.—Portsmouth Blade.

It is not improbable that THEODORE ROOSEVELT may be President TAFT's Secretary of State.

It must have been awful on Judge TAFT and Mr. BRYAN to have to stop talking so suddenly. However, the future looks bright for many talks from both of them.

THE philosophic Editor of The Bath County World says:

"The landslide didn't come our way, but we are getting used to it by this time, and anything different hereafter would be the biggest surprise imaginable."

BUILDING construction is making new high records, according to The Construction News. During October permits were taken out in thirty-six cities for the construction of 9,792 buildings, involving a total estimated cost of $42,074,775, or $12,000,000 more than was the case in October a year ago.

THE prize which Senator BEVERIDGE draws as a result of the election is that of undisputed leader of the Republican party in Indiana. Senator HEMINGWAY, his colleague, is slated to retire, and that's not a bit bad for the Republican party, as HEMINGWAY is a good double of the late lamented LONG of Kansas, who was a barnacle of the first water. BEVERIDGE has the material of a statesman in his make-up, and is one of the most forceful of the younger set of modern American Senators. He is self-made, too, and his hard experience has made a rugged man of a poor Ohio boy.

IT'S LUCKIER, TOO.

Knicker—Is a child born abroad of American parents eligible to the Presidency?
Bocker—Better have him born in Ohio.

Mr. Kithier Miller and Mr. I. Trowbridge of Ripley made the distance from Paris to this city in an automobile yesterday morning in three hours and twenty minutes. That was going some considering the condition of the lake caused by the heavy rainfall.

MRS. A. J. ALLEN.

Mrs. Anna J. Allen, wife of Mr. A. J. Allen, died suddenly this morning at Elizaville. She had been a sufferer from rheumatism, but her condition was not thought to have been critical, and her death was a shock to her family and friends.

She was 59 years of age and is survived by her husband and three children—two daughters, Mrs. Harris of Atlanta, Ga., and Mrs. Van Sant of Lexington—and one son—Andrew Darnall.

Mrs. Allen was also a cousin of Mr. C. W. Darnall of this city.

The time for the funeral has not been set, but the interment will be at Flemingsburg.

BROOM CORN

Comes High and Far But Maysville Must Have It

This morning there were standing in front of The Ledger Office two immense wagon-loads of broom corn, which came all the way from Wyoming, Bath county, 38 miles, to be delivered to the M. C. Russell Broom Factory of this city.

The material was raised by Messrs. William Tipton and Jackson Atleibson of Wyoming and there were about 6 tons in the lot.

As the Russell Company paid $72.50 per ton for the lot it will be seen that it pays to raise this product.

ONLY A PORKER

But at 3 A. M. the Noise Sounded Like a Raid By the Cops

This morning just before 3 o'clock the solitude of Fourth and Market streets was disturbed by the heavy tramp of many feet and the voices of men crying out:

"Stop him! Stop him! There he goes! Head him off up there!" etc.

Every instant those who heard the clamor were expecting to hear the soft pop of the ever-ready Kentucky revolver, but fortunately the great hubbub was caused only by the deckhands from the steamer Chilo, who were chasing an escaped hog which they were trying to force on the boat with his more gentle companions. But Mr. Porker objected and led the roustabouts a merry chase half over the city before he was captured and carried to the steamer in a handbarrow.

ONCE AGAIN

Thieves Visit the C. and O. Freight Depot

WERE JUDGES OF PURE GOODS

As They Carried Off 44 Quarts of Whisky and 16 Pounds of Coffee

Friday night, during the absence of the watchman, the C. and O. Freight Depot was broken into and forty-four quarts of Rogers' best brand of whisky and sixteen pounds of M. J. Donovan's celebrated Rio coffee were carried off by thieves and midnight prowlers.

The fact that the intruders selected whisky for their booty in preference to that of the substantial of life is evidence enough that it was not want and hunger that compelled them to steal, but rather to satisfy a thirst for strong drink.

It is almost certain that the stolen beverage will be the ultimate means of delivering the guilty ones over into the hands of the police.

Farmers Get Together and Boost Prices For Thanksgiving Birds

At Austerlitz, Bourbon county, forty flocks of turkeys, averaging fifty to the flock, were purchased of the Clay

"pooling" interests by C. B. Gilman of Lexington for fifteen and one-half cents per pound, live weight.

The turkeys averaged two dollars per head, bringing to the owners the sum of $4,000.

This was the largest sale of turkeys ever made in the county and is the second sale made by the pool formed by the Clay interests in that section of Bourbon county.
